

ANNUAL REPORT 2019

VITAL LIFE
FOUNDATION

LETTER FROM THE BOARD

OUR OVERLAPPING PURPOSE

The experiences Vital Life helped create ran together beautifully on the watercolor canvas of 2019—overlapping, connecting and creating vivid new shades of meaning and purpose for those living and working in senior care.

Once again, the generosity of our donors and the commitment of our charitable partners bridged the generations and united the causes we embrace. Our shared values, shared hopes and shared vision yielded colorful and exponential results, including:

- + $799,511 contributed to charitable partners and causes
- + $338,000 raised through Spirit Club, from 1,327 employee donors
- + $53,000 in Vital Volunteer time and donations
- + 23,500 backpacks delivered to date to 100 senior care campuses in ten states
- + 3,000 Cupid Crew roses shared in 13 senior care communities
- + Our 105th Journey of Heroes veteran taking the trip of a lifetime

In these and so many other inspiring ways since its founding in 2008, Vital Life continues to offer us each a paintbrush, and the opportunity to add our own unique artistry to the masterpiece we're creating together.

Just like no two watercolor sunsets are ever the same, no one can predict what unexpected beauty will emerge from the palette of 2020 and beyond. But whether we're donors, partners, senior care staff or residents, we'll all be guided and fueled by what never changes—our energy, passion and overlapping purpose.

2019 HIGHLIGHTS

AN AUTHENTIC AMERICAN HERO

The “Spirit of ‘45” audience rose in a standing ovation when she was introduced—Ada (Wyn) Loy, 96, one of America’s first “Rosie the Riveters,” and the model for the famous World War II poster.

Along with her sister and a friend, she was the real-life inspiration behind the nationwide movement, motivating countless women to serve their country in an unprecedented way.

With a huge smile on her face, she waved to the crowd of more than 400 veterans, family members, friends and community residents. The annual Foundation event in Aurora, Ore., celebrates the end of the war and all who sacrificed for freedom.

When the ceremony was over, through a partnership with the Ageless Aviation Dreams Foundation, she and other veterans took thrilling rides in the open cockpit of a Boeing Stearman biplane. Other activities included helicopter flights, side-car motorcycle excursions and an All-American picnic lunch.

Just two months later, Ada joined 11 other veterans on Vital Life’s Journey of Heroes trip to Washington, D.C. At every stop, admirers shared their appreciation, and at the McDonalds in the Air and Space Museum, children lined up to get their autographed Rosie photo.

For this authentic American hero, and all who served, no thanks will ever be enough.

A HUGE WEIGHT LIFTED

On a December afternoon, more than 50 volunteers from Marquis and Consonus gathered in a Spaghetti Factory parking lot, preparing to deliver toys to two Ronald McDonald locations through Vital Life’s annual Elf Give.

“It’s a normal day for us, but it could be the worst day of someone else’s life,” Kathryn Kolonic, D.O.,

chief medical officer for AgeRight Clinical Services, reminded the group. “You’ll never know if your time, or the toy you’ve donated, is what will make the difference.”

Then she explained just how close those words were to her heart.

Years before, Kathryn’s first child was born critically ill and had to be transported to another city for emergency medical care. For the family, staying at the local Ronald McDonald House lifted a huge weight, offering a safe place to eat and sleep. Tragically, the baby passed away soon after, but she’s been a passionate supporter of the charity ever since.

The Foundation, too, has shared that long-term commitment—from spearheading a new playground and remodel for the East campus to helping build the new Rood Family Pavilion.

For Kathryn, the heartbreaking experience is still difficult to talk about. “But as long as I can help people see that what they do matters,” she says, “I’ll keep telling the story.”

NO DIVISION— ALL TOGETHER

Donald Bramley, 81, had always been inspired by the words and life of Martin Luther King, Jr. So when the Journey of Heroes program made it possible for the Vietnam veteran to visit Washington, D.C., he couldn’t get to the steps of the Lincoln Memorial fast enough.

With the help of two companions, he climbed to the exact spot where his hero delivered the timeless, “I Have a Dream” speech. And with tears in his eyes, Donald shared an oration of his own, reflecting on the great man’s legacy—and his own hopes for the future.

“You’ve got to help keep this country strong,” he implored those standing near. “Please make sure that his dream and his words resonate forever.”

Journey of Heroes is a partnership between Vital Life and Wish of a Lifetime, and Donald was one of more than 100 veterans who have made the trip since it began. For many, it’s the first time they’ve ever seen the monuments created in their honor.

Looking out across the Reflecting Pool, Donald spied the 50 flags encircling the Washington Monument. “Remember, it’s the United States,” he said, his voice breaking. “No polarization. No division. All together.”

THE GAME OF HIS LIFE

Gary had loved football as long as he could remember, and the San Francisco 49ers was his all-time favorite team.

Life hadn’t been easy, and he’d spent the past fifty years in hospitals and care facilities. But through it all, whenever he was lonely or scared, he always had the 49ers.

While living at Marquis Shasta in Redding, Calif., Gary got word that his illness was terminal, and faced the reality of having limited time left. Determined to create one more unforgettable experience for him, Destini Rathert, the facility’s activity director, knew what he’d love most—to see a 49ers game in person.

She reached out to Vital Life about planning an Elevated Wish, and through its partnership with Wish of a Lifetime, and the generosity of the 49ers Foundation, Gary’s dream came true.

"I've never seen him so happy," said Destini. "He was even doing cheers with the crowd."

Though rarely able to communicate in words, the morning after the game, Gary expressed his deep gratefulness to her, and to everyone involved. "Thank you so much, I love you," he told her softly.

"This wish gave him so much joy and is something he will never forget," Destini said. "And neither will we."

CHEF HATS AND HIGH-FIVES

"Two minutes left!" warned the judges, and a burst of frenetic activity filled the kitchen at the Friends of the Children community center in Gresham, Ore. Three teams of at-risk youths, led by "celebrity chefs" from Marquis senior care facilities, were vying to win Vital Life's first "Chopped" competition.

"5, 4, 3, 2, 1.... Time's up!"

Loosely based on the Food Network reality series, each team created a unique dish made from mystery ingredients. In their white chef hats, the children learned how to safely dice vegetables and other cooking basics, high-fiving each other when something tasted good.

"The secret is to let them use their imaginations," said chef Angel Coronel, dietary manager at Marquis Autumn Hills. "I'm so glad to be here working with them."

To further the Foundation's goal to connect seniors with young people in intergenerational experiences, one of the judges was a resident at Marquis Piedmont Assisted Living. Several other facility residents assisted in other activities, which included blind taste tests, fitness challenges and nutrition trivia.

The dishes were judged on presentation, creativity and taste, and with the crowd providing a drum roll, Angel's team was victorious. But as announcer Steve Fogg was quick to add, "Everyone did a great job, and everyone's a winner."

“THE SECRET IS TO LET THEM
IMAGINATIONS.”
